

Upcoming Programs & Events

Visit www.azsae.com for a complete Calendar of Events or to register for a program.

4th Fridays: Interactive Professional Development & Networking Program Series

Join us for these Member Luncheon Programs held on the 4th Friday of the month. The programs lead off with an insightful presentation by an authority on the featured topic and then participants at each table network and discuss their own challenges around the issue and share ideas and solutions.

April 27, 2007: Membership

May 25, 2007: 7 Measures of Success

Tech Tools & Techniques Workshop Series

Join us for these skill-building and collaborative learning workshops and take home, easy to implement tips for maximizing Microsoft applications used everyday in your association office such as Word, Excel, Outlook, Publisher and Access. Learn the tricks and practice the techniques that not only save time and improve the quality of your work but that build your skill level on critical computer functions. These workshops are only available to AzSAE Members and their staff.

May 16, 2007: To Excel or Not to Excel

Understanding and Practicing Uses of MS Excel Beyond Number Crunching

Resources

Knowledge Center

The AzSAE Knowledge Center is a collection of resources, samples and publications for association professionals. The center is organized into 9 major departments covering topics such as Membership, Boards and Events. AzSAE Members may access the center at www.azsae.com with their member login and password. Have a resource you would like to share? Send it to info@azsae.com (preferred formats are: word, excel, publisher and pdf).

Featured Department: Board

Want to make your meetings more streamlined but not sure where to start? Looking for a checklist for your next board meeting? Need a sample Conflict of Interest Statement or Board Job Descriptions? These and other resources are available online or from the AzSAE Library.

Key Partners

AzSAE Key Partners are your strategic allies in the Association Industry. They not only provide services and products key to the successful management of your organization, they have a great understanding of association's unique needs. Call one of them today and "Experience the Difference" having the right key makes. Visit www.azsae.com for a directory of Key Partners.

Career Center

Diversity Executive Leadership Program (DELP) – Scholarship Deadline is April 27th

The Diversity Executive Leadership Program (DELP) helps individuals from underrepresented segments of the association community advance into the ranks of leadership in the association profession. DELP scholars participate in an accelerated leadership program of education and volunteer service in the association community.

Know a good candidate for this program? For more info, including the Program Eligibility Requirements & Application Process, visit www.asaecenter.org

CAE Corner

The Certified Association Executive (CAE) program is designed to elevate professional standards, enhance individual performance, and designate association professionals who demonstrate the knowledge essential to the practice of association management. For more information, visit www.asaecenter.org.

Ready to achieve a new level of professional growth and recognition? Check out the Eligibility Requirements at www.asaecenter.org

News

AzSAE Member Becomes ASAE Fellow

Stacy Tetschner, CAE, Executive Vice President/CEO of the National Speakers Association in Tempe, Arizona has been named an ASAE Fellow. The ASAE & The Center's Fellows Program has been recognizing leading thinkers and exceptional contributors to the association community since 1986. These individuals seek out opportunities to serve the profession and encourage their colleagues to challenge the status quo and keep an eye on the future of the profession - to ensure that it remains vibrant and valued. Although Fellows represent a wide range of professional backgrounds, experience and expertise, they share certain key characteristics: push the boundaries of our industry or profession; envision and leverage future forces; take risks and are innovative; represent diversity of thought; and participate, serve, and lead within the profession.

Mr. Tetschner joins 2 other AzSAE Members that have received this honor in the past:

Kathleen Griffin, CAE, President/CEO, Valley Consultants, Inc.

Susan Bitter Smith, CAE, Executive Director, Arizona - New Mexico Cable Communications Association

For more information on the ASAE Fellow Program, visit www.asaecenter.org.

Arizona Society of Association Executives
815 N. 1st Avenue, Suite 1, Phoenix, AZ 85003
Tel: (602) 266-0133 Web: www.azsae.com

You have received this message because of your association with the Arizona Society of Association Executives (AzSAE). Some notices may be considered commercial in nature. To "opt out" of receiving such notices, please reply to this email and type, "REMOVE FROM LIST" in the subject line. You may also contact the AzSAE Office at 602.266.0133.