Call for Nominations! Executive of the Year Award

The Executive of the Year is the highest recognition given by the Arizona Society of Association Executives (AzSAE) to the Chief Staff Executive of an association in Arizona. Respected leaders of their own associations, the recipients are women and men who contribute their time and expertise to other voluntary membership organizations, play an active role in civic and community affairs, and serve other affiliate associations. In short, they exemplify the very best in association management, continually bringing credit to the profession and to the entire association community. This annual award is presented at the AzSAE Holiday Gala.

Deadline for nominations: October 1 - Click here for more information or visit www.azsae.com.

Get the Recognition Your Organization Deserves!

Awards of Excellence in Association Management

Each year AzSAE recognizes outstanding programs and projects implemented by associations in Arizona. The winning entries in 5 categories are showcased at the AzSAE Holiday Gala and serve as inspiration to other associations. This program is open to all non-profit associations located in the state of Arizona, including local chapters of national/global organizations.

Deadline for submissions: November 1 - Click here for more information or visit www.azsae.com.
